24 May 1965

Honorable William F. Raborn, Jr.
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Langley, Virginia 20505

Dear Mr. Raborn:

The students and staff of the U. S. Army Intelligence School express their appreciation for the period of instruction presented by Mr. [redacted] on 11 May 1965, to personnel attending Class 65-SO-4 of the Senior Foreign Officer Intelligence Course.

[redacted] lecture on economic data was well received by our senior foreign officers. The presentation clarified for them the important contribution of economic intelligence to the overall picture of military intelligence. This was a most interesting and stimulating talk which contributed substantially to the academic program for these students.

Thank you for providing the services of [redacted] for this presentation. We shall look forward to further appearances by him as a guest speaker.

Sincerely,

Peter N. Derzis
